

STEM PANEL DISCUSSION

Tuesday, April 13, 7:30 pm

Talk with recent WHS graduates as they share their perspective on STEM opportunities after WHS
Register or submit ?s on WEF website

Forrest, WHS '10

Embry-Riddle, BS and MS Engineering Physics;
University of Colorado Boulder, MS Aerospace Eng
Completing PhD in Aerospace Engineering

Take initiative, accept risk.

Billy, WHS '13

Vanderbilt, BS Chemical Engineering
Software Engineer at Foothold Technologies

Find the spaces where you can be your whole self.

Susan, WHS '14

Northeastern University, Chemistry; Cambridge School of Culinary Arts, Pastry Certificate Program
Working in Food Product Development

EXPLORE. Your dream job may be something you don't even know exists.

Taylor, WHS '15

Vassar College , BA Biochemistry
Transitioning from Dana Farber

Advocate for yourself, don't be afraid to ask for help or let someone know when something isn't working for you. You are the only one who can know what's best for you.

Cole, WHS '16

UMass Amherst, started Chemistry switched to CS
MS in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning
Data + Applied Scientist II at Microsoft

Don't freak out about your major, it's both common and easy to change it later!